Tickets Selling Briskly For Hockey Spectacular

Tickets for the All-Star Hockey Spectacular at Kelowna next Saturday are continuing to sell at a brisk pace and any puck fans who haven't purchased them yet had better do so in a hurry.

Tickets may be obtained locally at Ernie's Esso Service. All seats at Kelowna's Memorial Arena are on a reserved basis.

Headlining this summer's hockey bash will be Chicago Black Hawks' Blond Bomber Bobby Hull along with Detroit Red Wings' veteran defenceman Bill Gadsby.

Stars from the Western Hockey League will also be strutting their stuff along with all-stars from the Okanagan Junior "A" Hockey League.

Representing Vernon Blades in the Spectacular will be defenceman Jim Stephen and centre Bobby Stein.

Steve Lattey Wins Glacier Skiing Race

It's mid-summer but Vernon's Steve Lattey is still on the ski trail.

Sunday young Steve sped to first place in the annual Victoria Glacier Ski race. Steve is recognized as one of Canada's rising ski stars, having won the junior alpine championship earlier this year.

Second in the race was Scott Henderson of the National Ski Team and third was Bert Irwin of Princeton.

The race is sponsored annually by the Calgary Ski Club.
