OJHL Meeting Held Last Week

The Okanagan Junior "A" Hockey League held a meeting last Wednesday here in Vernon to discuss scheduling and rule changes for the 1965-66 season.

The four OJHL clubs, Vernon, Kelowna, Kamloops and Penticton-Summerland, drew up a partial schedule which will be completed at a later date. Another meeting has been set for Aug. 25.

There was also some discussion on Canadian Amateur Hockey Association policy concerning the upcoming season.
