

Three players have more than 30 goals

Vernon scoring sensation Dennis Holland, to the surprise of no one, leads a list of three Lakers who have scored more than 30 goals so far in the 1985-86 B.C. Junior Hockey League campaign.

Holland, who turned 17 today, leads the local club with 35 goals, 44 assists and 79 points in just 39 games or a two point per game clip.

Troy Pohl, another of Lakers' sparkplugs up front, also has 35 goals following a five-goal performance Saturday night in Salmon Arm. Pohl, one of three brothers who play with Lakers, also has 23 assists for 58 points and fourth spot in the club's individual scoring standings.

Centre Doug Spooner, in his first year with Lakers, is the third member of the team to reach the 30-goal plateau. Spooner is right behind Holland in team scoring with 32 goals and 29 assists for 61 points.

Third place in club scoring belongs to big winger Stacy Hartnell who checks in with 23 goals and 36 assists for 59 points.

The team has played 40 games so far this season and has 12 remaining. They currently hold down third spot in the BCJHL Interior Division but catching Kelowna Packers, who lead Lakers by 12 points for second place is all but impossible. The club has five home games remaining, playing Kelowna, Penticton, Richmond, Salmon Arm and Penticton again.

Lakers also have seven road games remaining. The team has a record of 24 wins, 13 losses and three ties for 51 points and a comfortable 13 point lead over fourth place Merritt Warriors who are battling with Summerland Buckaroos for the final playoff spot.
