

Knights win

DARTMOUTH, N.S. (CP) — James Burnett and Chris Anderson scored two goals apiece Tuesday night as Penticton, B.C., Knights beat Moncton Hawks 6-3, eliminating the New Brunswick team from the Centennial Cup playoffs.

Kevin Melrose and David Shields also scored for Penticton, while Wray Quigley, Michel Boucher and Simon Dube replied for Moncton.

The Knights outshot Moncton 60-31.

Moncton centre John Cunningham was impressed with the Penticton squad and said the Hawks were overwhelmed by the British Columbia team's penalty killing ability.

"They've got a big, physical team and they would have beat just about any team in this tournament tonight," said Cunningham.

"There was just a complete wall there and we couldn't go through."

Penticton assistant coach Nick Ianonne said his team's penalty killing prowess didn't come easily.
